

Official record n° 1022

Rafael Correa Delgado

Constitutional president of the Republic

Considering:

That, by means of Executive Decree Not. 117th, published in the Official Record Not. 33 of March 5, 2007, there was created the Coordinating department of Natural and Cultural Patrimony, which its principal activity takes root in coordinating the political ones and actions that in the field of tangible capital adopt diverse portfolios of State;

That for a better efficiency in the public administration, it turns out to be necessary to assign the Coordinating Department of Natural and Cultural Patrimony to the National Institute of Cultural heritage; and,

In use of the attributions awarded by the numeral article 171 9 of the Political Constitution of the Republic,

IT DELIVERS A JUDGMENT:

Art. 1.- There Be Assigned the Coordinating Department of Natural and Cultural Patrimony to the National Institute of Cultural heritage.

Art. 2.- The financial existing resources in the budget of the Presidency of the Republic corresponding to the Coordinating Department of Natural and Cultural Patrimony will have to be transferred to the National Institute of Cultural heritage.

Art. 3.- Of the execution of the present Executive Decree, which will be validated in the present

Ascription of the Coordinator Ministry for Natural and Cultural Heritage to the INPC

Written by Gaëtan Juillard

Tuesday, 15 April 2008 20:48 - Last Updated Friday, 27 June 2008 22:52

date without detriment to his publication the Official Record, entrust the Ministers of Finance and Coordinating Natural and Cultural Patrimony.

Given in the National Palace, in Quito on April 15, 2008

f.) Rafael Correa Delgado
Constitutional president of the Republic

f.) Fausto Ortiz de la Cadena
The Secretary of the Treasury and Finance

f.) Doris Solís Carrión
Coordinating minister of Natural and Cultural Heritage