

Draft of the Law of Culture is in March

Written by Francisco Valdez

Sunday, 19 July 2009 09:15 - Last Updated Thursday, 17 September 2009 10:40

On having finished the campaign " 100 days for the Culture ", the minister Ramiro Noriega met in City Alfaro (Montecristi) 240 representatives of cultural groups and artists to extract consensuses concerning the making of the new Law of Culture that it must be presented, according to the Constitution, in two months. The realized meeting last Friday, the 17th and Saturday, the 18th of July, it was designed by the Minister Noriega as a mechanism to democratize the making of the legal body.